Section (Level 1): Formatting & Content Tests

Subsection (Level 2): Chicago Footnotes

If you wish to do a Chicago style footnote, use `\autocite`. Here is an example: “good night moon.”¹

Subsection (Level 2): Chicago Quotes

Use `\enquote` or other standard L^AT_EX command if you are doing a short quote. You’ll want the quotation marks. Here is an example (with footnote), “see Spot run!”²

If you wish to do a longer quote, use `\chicagoblock`. Here is an example quoting from Purdue OWL recommendations for Chicago 17:

Text should be consistently double-spaced, except for block quotations, notes, bibliography entries, table titles, and figure captions. For block quotations, which are also called extracts. Text should be consistently double-spaced, except for block quotations, notes, bibliography entries, table titles, and figure captions. For block quotations, which are also called extracts A prose quotation of five or more lines, or more than 100 words, should be blocked. CMOS recommends blocking two or more lines of poetry. A blocked quotation does not get enclosed in quotation marks. A blocked quotation must always begin a new line. Blocked quotations should be indented with the word processor’s indentation tool.³

Subsubsection (Level 3): Language Tests
